St. Augustine: A Voice from the Past That Still Speaks Today

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

When we speak of the Reformation, our minds naturally turn to Martin Luther and that fateful day in 1517 when he posted his 95 Theses. But behind Luther stood a long line of faithful voices, none more influential than St. Augustine of Hippo. Though he lived over a thousand years before Luther, Augustine helped shape the theological ground on which the Reformation would one day stand. His life, writings, and conversion continue to speak powerfully into our faith today.

Augustine was born in 354 A.D. in North Africa. He was intellectually brilliant, but spiritually restless. For years, he sought fulfillment in philosophy, fame, and pleasure. His mother, St. Monica, was a devout Christian who never ceased praying for her wayward son. Augustine dabbled in different religions and schools of thought, but none could satisfy the ache of his soul. His big "revelation moment" came when he heard a child's voice say, "Take and read, take and read." He opened the Scriptures and his eyes fell on Romans 13:13-14:

“Let us walk properly as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in quarreling and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.”

In that moment, God opened Augustine's heart to the transforming power of grace. He left his old life behind and was baptized by Ambrose of Milan in 387 A.D. From that point forward, Augustine became one of the Church's most powerful voices for the truth of God's Word.

His writings, especially Confessions and The City of God, still resonate today. Confessions is not only the first spiritual autobiography in Christian history, but also a raw and honest look at the human soul's journey to God. It reminds us that the path to salvation is not about earning God's favor, but about being transformed by His mercy. The City of God offers deep insight into how Christians live in a broken world while longing for the eternal Kingdom. It is as relevant in our complex modern world as it was in the chaos of the collapsing Roman Empire.

For Martin Luther, Augustine was a trusted guide. Luther was an Augustinian monk, and it was through Augustine's writings that he learned the true depth of sin, and the even greater power of God's grace. Augustine's teaching on the bondage of the will, the necessity of grace, and the supremacy of Scripture paved the way for Luther's rediscovery of the Gospel.

Why does Augustine still matter? Because, like Luther, we live in a world full of searching souls. We see Augustine's story echoed in the lives of people around us, restless hearts trying to find peace in all the wrong places. His famous quote still rings true, "You have made us for Yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You."

At Holy Lamb Lutheran Church, we are privileged to carry forward the same Gospel Augustine embraced and Luther rediscovered, that we are saved by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone. Augustine reminds us that no one is beyond the reach of God's grace, and no mind too great or heart too lost to be redeemed.

Family Reads Books for Forestbrook Elementary

A reminder to be on the lookout over the summer for used books for elementary aged students. There is a container to leave donated books under the table in the church narthex. Donations of books and money are greatly appreciated. Checks can be made out to Holy Lamb Church with "Family Reads" in the memo line. Over the last school year, Holy Lamb cleaned and delivered 2033 books, 2 books for each child. Many thanks to Sunny Fry at Socastee Methodist for leading this effort.

Thank you.

Stewardship ~ Saved to Serve

In Luther's Small Catechism, the explanation of the First Article of the Creed says that God "gives me clothing and shoes, food and drink, house and home, wife and children, land, animals, and all I have. He richly and daily provides me with all that I need to support this body and life." God is the ultimate giver of all that we have. To acknowledge these gifts and our dependence on the Lord, God calls us to give a portion of our income back to Him through our financial offerings. As the hymn says: "We give Thee but Thine own" (LSB #781). Indeed, the scriptures are very clear: Christians are to give generously to support the work of the Church, which God has established to preach the gospel and administer the sacraments.

Volunteers Needed

Calling all potential Audio, Video, Readers & Ushers

Our church relies on its members to volunteer in various roles in order for our worship services to run smoothly. Without you, it is difficult to do the many things we need to do. We are in need of volunteers to run the sound system (8am & 10:30am) and video (10:30am) services. We could always use more ushers for both services too, especially 10:30am. We are also accepting names for readers (pick your date & time and sign up in the narthex). Please consider helping out with these very important parts of our worship services. If you have questions, please talk to those who do the job or talk to Bill Steele or call or email the office. Training is provided.

Books for Forestbrook Elementary

In June of 2020 Sunny Fry through Socastee United Methodist Church began collecting, cleaning, and sharing books with children in the Socastee Community under “Families Read.”

As part of Sunny’s effort, Holy Lamb has been cleaning and distributing books to Forestbrook Elementary for about 2 years.

We need books! We ask that the congregation be on the lookout for gently used children’s books. Possible sources are yard sales, estate sales, grandchildren, libraries outside of Horry County, used book stores, etc.

There is a labeled box under a table in the church narthex for donated books.

Stewardship Is...

Love in Action

Stewardship Meeting

There will be a Stewardship meeting July 15th at 10:30 am after Bible study. When meetings are needed, we will meet the 3rd Tuesday of the month at 10:30 am.

Thank you.
 Phil Harris, Stewardship

THE PUMPKINS ARE COMING!!

Yeah yeah, I know... not until October. BUT we'd like to have you save the dates now. On October 11, the pumpkins will arrive on an 18 wheeler from New Mexico. They are raised on the Navajo Indian Reservation and the farm workers are 95% Native American.

Pumpkins USA began in North Carolina and they grew their pumpkins there until..... you guessed it..... Hurricanes... Hugo convinced them to find another growing area.

With the money earned from the pumpkin patch we have traditionally had a FALL Festival, inviting the community to bring kids to visit Holy Lamb for a day of games, crafts, music, bouncy houses and FUN. FREE to the community except for the food court and the bake sale that the LWML organizes.

The Fall Festival will be held on Oct 25th this year.

Both the sale of the pumpkins and the Festival could use your help:

Our leaders thus far are:

Henry Twentier - Events coordinator

Sylvia Stedina - Chair of the festival

Merilynn Sell - Pumpkin patch and sales

Pat and Tom Marquardt - Festival games

Barb Evans- Festival Crafts & Pumpkin Patch evening closer

Holy Lamb's 40th Anniversary

After much work the Charter was signed on Palm Sunday, March 23, 1986. The members then began planning for organizational Sunday. After the constitution was written and approved, organization Sunday was celebrated on November 30th. That same fall, a parcel of land on Forestbrook Road was purchased as a future site by the District..

We are beginning the planning of our 40th Anniversary celebration. It will be on September 25 beginning at 5:30 PM. We would greatly appreciate it if you would RSVP on the church website. Just click on the 40th Anniversary tab.

Our next Evangelism meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, July 23 at 10:00 AM.

Please plan to attend.

Why Should I Tithe?

Reflect on the principles that scripture gives every Christian regarding money offerings:

- * The Lord wants me to make my money offerings WILLINGLY.

Read—2 Corinthians 9:7

- * The Lord wants me to make my money offerings to Him FIRST. He is not pleased when I give Him leftovers.

Read—Proverbs 3:9-10 and Malachi 3:8-10

- * The Lord wants me to make my money offerings in Him REGULARLY; this is, whenever I have income, whether I am able to attend church that week or not.

Read—1 Corinthians 16:2

- * My money offerings to the Lord should also be made GENEROUSLY.

Read—2 Corinthians 8:1-4 and Mark 12:41-44

Church Council

Church Council Meeting Note

Church Council is taking the month of July off.

The next meeting will be August 12
